A MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

Greetings St. John's family and friends,

I found myself mesmerized by a single candle in worship this past Sunday. As the first candle of our Advent Wreath was lit, I felt all consumed by its flicker and flame. In that moment, I was drawn into everything that candle represented and everything I needed it to represent. I was so consumed, I almost forgot to continue the service with the opening acclamation! It was as if time was standing still as I just lingered in that gaze, pausing long enough to allow the Spirit to speak. For many, the world seems void of hope. Our yearnings for wholeness, peace, healing, justice, reconciliation, or a different future spill over into every aspect of our lives. The season of Advent invites us to consider our greatest longings and to cling to our deepest hopes.

I'm always amazed at how different elements in our worship services can open us up to the presence of God in our midst. This year, it's the candle of hope that is burning bright, illuminating the path of my Advent journey. I wonder which candle is captivating your attention. If not a candle, is there a piece of music, the taste of the sacrament, a blue vestment, the sound of a Sanctus bell, a brightly lit Christmas tree, a gift wrapped for someone outside of your own immediate family, the smell of pine, or a simple liturgical act that is drawing you in to receive the greatest gift ever given; the gift of Christ himself.

Advent means "coming." We gather week after week to hear, again, the story of our savior's birth, and yet, we also long for Christ to return and complete what God began. But in between, in the here and now, we acknowledge that Christ is always coming into our lives, always entering a wayward and struggling heart. Henri Nouwen once wrote,

*The Lord is coming, always coming.
When you have ears to hear and eyes to see,
you will recognize him at any moment of your life.
Life is Advent; life is recognizing the coming of the Lord.*

I pray you recognize Christ in your midst this Advent season. I pray you slow down long enough to allow yourself to be consumed by the presence of Christ through all of your God given senses. Remember, "Life is Advent, life is recognizing the coming of the Lord."

I remain faithfully yours,
Amanda+

Angel Tree Ministry

The spirit of giving is once again alive at St. John’s. This year our Angel tree ministry will provide gifts for the women of the Beth Shalom House of Peace and their children, the children involved in our Eagle’s Nest after school program, and for community members who have specifically reached out for help this holiday.

Please consider taking a tag or two from the Christmas tree to provide a gift. Please return gifts with the tag attached by Sunday, December 12th to the Christmas tree in the parish hall. If you are not currently attending in person services but would like to participate, please reach out to Ann Carroll or Annie Lattanzio Hale at kinder Carroll128@gmail.com or anniela1207@comcast.net.

Merry Christmas!

Christmas Caroling

Calling all carolers!!! Join us Sunday, December 5th at 6PM to spread some Holiday cheer! We’ll canvas the neighborhood offering songs of glad tidings. After caroling, join us in the parish hall for hot cocoa and treats. This season has been especially difficult for many of our friends and neighbors, so let’s warm some hearts through the gift of song!

Bonus points for anyone who dresses the part....

Food Pantry Needs

Friends, as we enter the season of giving, we ask that you keep those in our community who frequent our food pantry in your hearts and on your minds. Our pantry will be accepting “Christmas Dinner” type foods throughout the month of December as well as ham and turkey certificates you may be willing to contribute.

ANNUAL MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The Annual Meeting was held November 7, 2021. After a breakfast served by the Community Breakfast Team, the meeting was called to order. There were 89 Parishioners present in person and over Zoom.

Amanda+ began her Rector's report by showing a video of many of the ministries at St. John's. We remain an active and vibrant congregation despite the pandemic. She continued by addressing our Staffing issues. We must rethink our office staff, including the Sexton's job. Also, in order to continue to increase our service to our community and our parishioners, we need to address the lack of a full time Assistant Clergy.

Matt+ expressed thanks to the Music Minister Search Committee for their diligence in seeking the best possible candidate. He also reported on our current Adult Formation program.

Charles Wear presented our financial report. While supporting our ministries, we also are on pace to achieve a Balanced Budget for the second year in a row. In presenting the 2022 Budget, we are again projecting a balanced budget. This budget allows us to hire a full time Assistant Clergy in July with the continued support of our parishioner's stewardship pledges.

We thanked the retiring Vestry members, Debbie Carter, Webb Cook, Tim Huber, and Molly Moyer. The new Vestry members elected are Nick DiPace, Andrew Welaish, and Paula Wolf.

VESTRY HIGHLIGHTS

This is the time of year where the Vestry takes stock of our current year status and makes plans for the coming year. The Annual Meeting was our opportunity to present this to the parishioners. We are pleased to report the following:

In this time of pandemic, St. John's has become an even stronger supporter of the Lancaster community at large. We continue to be on of the strongest teams at the Community Meals site and grew our Food Pantry program to almost six times its previous size. We added the Blessings Box and the "Fence Ministry" to our efforts. We deepened our relationship with the Fulton Elementary School as shown by the enthusiastic response that Eagles Nest has received from the students.

Through our Deacon's leadership, a formidable team has been active in supporting returning female citizens. Some members have begun the initiative to make it known to the public that we are an Open and Affirming Church.

Adult Formation has become as active part of our Sundays. We welcomed a new Deacon and a new Minister of Music.

We paid off the Capital Campaign loan on time.

At our November meeting the Vestry approved updates to the Church Bylaws. We also approved a new Building Use Policy subject to the review of our Safe Church policy.

Looking ahead to 2022, we are supporting our Rector's efforts to redefine our staffing needs in order that we can further our ministry efforts by adding a full time Assistant Clergy. Your continued support of our Stewardship campaign efforts will make this possible.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

St. John's received a substantial bequest as a residual beneficiary of the Winthrop Everett trust in October. That, coupled with paying off our capital loan mentioned last month, has almost doubled the church's net financial assets since the beginning of the year. Details were provided at the annual meeting on November 7.

Operating results below show pledge and other income for the month of October to be within typical norms. Expenses were relatively high for the month based on the $3500 fee for auditing our 2020 books and about $9000 in property expenses for brickwork and church HVAC repairs. As reported in previous months, our income and expenses YTD are both below budget and below last year. The net effects are offsetting; we are still operating with a favorable net surplus which was budgeted for the year.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR DEACON

God Loves Blue Too

"I think there must be something wrong with me, Linus. Christmas is coming, but I'm not happy. I don't feel the way I'm supposed to feel."- Charlie Brown, A Charlie Brown Christmas

Charlie Brown is not alone. There are all kinds of folks who feel the same way as Charlie Brown does about Christmas. Some of us are confused because we don't feel so jolly, we aren't experiencing Christmas cheer as we believe we should. For others, it goes deeper than that. Christmas is a reminder of what our life was or what our life isn't.

There are many reasons why some of us experience a painful Christmas. Maybe because there is an empty place at the table. At a time of the year when family is being celebrated, loss is magnified and it doesn't matter if it is the first Christmas or the twentieth Christmas, grief isn't an easy journey. Perhaps, it is the harsh reality of economics. The trappings that our consumer culture demands pressure us because we don't know how we are going to make ends meet. Or maybe we are feeling a bit like Winston Churchill who often spoke about his "Black Dog," a name he gave his depression which followed him throughout his life. Finally, it can simply be weariness or as J.R.R. Tolkien wrote, "Why, I feel all thin, sort of stretched, if you know what I mean: like butter that has been scraped over too much bread."

Understandably, we often try to ignore the tension during Advent, between the joy of the coming of Christ and the reality that Jesus came into a broken world. But isn't this what an authentic Christmas is all about? Theologian Walter Wink states it succinctly. "Jesus incarnated God in his own person in order to show all of us how to incarnate God. And to incarnate God is what it means to be fully human." God chose to be with us in our anxiety, depression, poverty, loneliness, grief, injustice, sickness and everything else that could make us want to hide until Christmas is over.

God comes near to bring us near to God. God is also with us for peace, healing, well-being, good will and love. He wants to be with us and among us, in all our joys and sufferings.

If this time of year is proving difficult for you, invite Jesus into your heart. Talk with Him, weep with Him and allow Him to hold you in His loving arms. Our God is a faithful God, know you are not alone, know you were made out of Love, for Love. Listen for Love's prompting in your heart and ask God to show you, who you can bless with a simple phone call during our holiday season.

This Advent, as we draw closer to God's coming into our world, may we be blessed and be a blessing. May we hold gentle space in our broken world for ourselves and for each other with the love of Christ.

"We Are All Broken. That's How the Light Gets In."-Leonard Cohen

With Love & Gratitude for the blessing of St. John's,

Deacon Stacey and James Catigano

OPEN AND AFFIRMING

Next Step on Our Journey to Becoming An Open & Affirming Church

St. John's believes that every person is a child of God; no exceptions.

Is there more we can do to live out this belief? Yes.

We can enhance how we reach out and how we invite people in. We can learn more. Share more. Love more. And do it all with humility, grace and authenticity.

At its November meeting, St. John's Open & Affirming Committee started working on a Welcoming Statement that will let people know that St. John's is an open and affirming space for our LGBTQIA+ siblings. The committee will share the draft statement with the parish for input in early 2022.

The group brainstormed on words and phrases that would reflect St. John's commitment to this journey. Words such as dignity and worth, faithfulness, loving, intentional and unconditional acceptance made the list. So did phrases such as:

- You are welcome as you are.
- We are called by Jesus to love all.
- Everyone is invited to the table.
- We embrace this challenge with God's help.
- We will learn and grow together.
- We believe in the sacred worth of all people.

The committee recognizes that parishioners may have different comfort levels and levels of awareness on this topic, and it will reach out to the congregation for input in the form of a survey or questionnaire in early 2022.

As Amanda stated during the meeting, "For this to come to life, it has to be authentic; it has to be real." The Welcoming Statement and other work the committee will undertake are working toward St. John's aspiration to be a fully Open & Affirming church. With the parish's help and with God's help, we will continue to move closer to that goal.

Members of the committee include Annie Lattanzio-Hale, Barbara Landis, Marylee Sauder, Heather Trenary, Jen Trenary, Bruce Waskowicz, Maria Weaver-Hollowniczky (Chair), The Rev. Amanda Knouse (Clergy) and The Rev. Matt MacDougall (Clergy).

Please watch this space for updates on the committee's activities, and please reach out to committee members with questions or ideas.

GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP

Global Partnership Challenge for December 5th

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." John 1:5

Our Jewish friends are celebrating Chanukah and one of the acts is to light candles each night as it is getting dark. Think about the dark times we all have been going through and how even the smallest candle, the smallest light, the smallest kindness can make a difference to those Here, There, Everywhere. As you process your gifting to those you know, think of a stranger in your presence who could be moved by the smallest act of caring and brightness.

Global Partnership Challenge for December 12th

Los Posadas - December 16 to 24th

Los Posadas derives from a Spanish word "posada" meaning "lodging or accommodation." Celebrated in Latin America, Mexico, Guatemala, Cuba, Spain and Hispanics in the U.S. It lasts for 9 days representing the 9-month pregnancy of Mary and is celebrated with carols sung, dinners together, and people representation of Mary and Joseph going to different homes.

At a time when we are separated from each other, think of the ways we could connect and share caring and love. A real, written note as oppose of email, an invitation to share a cup of coffee, a donation to the Food Pantry, whatever you are comfortable with but that would allow someone else feel your caring - Here, There, Everywhere - NO exceptions.

Global Partnership Challenge for December 19th

December 21st - Winter Solstice

This is the shortest day of the year all over the world. People light candles and bonfires to coax back the sun. Think of a way you could bring the light, the warmth of the sun into someone's life. A sharing, a caring, demonstrated and heartfelt.

Global Partnership Challenge for December 26th

Watching the news or reading it over the last almost two years has been difficult with the dealing with Covid, racial issues, violence, bullying on many levels. As we prepare to step into a new year, think about making a goal for yourself, a resolution, that will draw you into action to be positive, to be a steward, to act in love as a child of God. Consider making a resolution to sit in silence for a time each day and instead of "talking to God" consider some meditation time when you are silence and allow God "to talk to you!" Blessings to ALL.
